Charges paid to Acorns:

The following charges are fees that you pay to Acorns on a monthly basis for managing your accounts. They are assessed as follows:

- Acorns Subscription Charge: This is the total amount you are paying to Acorns each month for access to the Acorns Financial Wellness System and all related services. The Acorns Subscription Charge has two components: the Acorns Program Charge and the Investment Advisory Charge.
 - Acorns Program Charge: The Program Charge is the Acorns Subscription Charge minus the Investment Advisory Charge. This charge is allocated to Acorns Grow Incorporated and is the fee for the overall platform and services including educational content and access to the Acorns financial wellness system.
 - Investment Advisory Charge: This charge is paid to Acorns Advisers, LLC for the investment advisory services provided to you across all of your advisory account(s) which may include Invest, Later and/or Early.

If your Acorns Subscription includes multiple Acorns products, you will see your Total Monthly Acorns Subscription Charge on each statement that you receive from us. Please note you only pay this Subscription Charge amount one time each month and the Subscription Charge covers all your products. The Additional Fee is charged for specially requested services or irregular occurrences such as wire transfers, asset and funds transfers, and rollovers. If we are unable to collect your Subscription Charge or any Additional Fees by debiting your funding sources, we may initiate sales in your Portfolio Account(s) to fully or partially satisfy your charges and fees. Sales of Securities for Fees reflects the shares sold from your Portfolio Account(s) to cover the Subscription Charge or any Additional Fees this month since we were unable to debit your linked funding source. To help ensure that charges and fees are taken from your linked funding source, please ensure your funding source is adequately linked and funded at your billing date.
